3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - In today's Gospel passage we hear the great Jubilee text. Jesus goes to the Sabbath Service in the synagogue at Nazareth. His reputation has spread throughout the countryside, and many have come to see Him, curious about what He might say. After all the miracles that He has been performing in other places, they look to Him to explain Himself.

Jesus stands up and reads from Isaiah, the text telling of the anointed one who is coming with good news to liberate prisoners, free the oppressed and announce a period of grace – the Great Jubilee. Jesus concludes with: “This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen.” The Old Testament principle of Jubilee is restored in the teaching of Jesus. Jubilee behavior involves showing compassion and care for those crushed by social and economic structures. Jesus reveals His identity and His mission to bring “good news to the poor.”

As a congregation, a social justice group, a school group, a family or even as individuals, we are called to live in step with the spirit of Jubilee renewal. This means showing compassion to people in need, but also working to break the chains of structural injustice that prevent millions throughout the world from realizing full and dignified lives. We are called to seek ways to release from poverty those who live on the outer margins of society. Many of us have a deep desire to do something about the plight of the world's poor people. Living the Jubilee principle means understanding that poverty is not simply about lack of money, and that charity alone – though vital – will not bring it to an end.

The Biblical vision of Jubilee provides a perspective to guide the Christian community's behavior in the larger economic system. It invites us to listen to the voices of people who are poor, oppressed and powerless, to deepen our understanding of the structural causes of global poverty and injustice, to pray for long-term solutions to the global poverty crisis, and to share wealth with those who are poor. In recent decades, there have been strong Jubilee movements, involving the churches, to cancel the debt of low-income countries, bring about trade justice, and challenge the huge amounts of global spending on arms trading and nuclear weapons. Through prayer and action, our congregation can be part of the worldwide Jubilee movement to tackle greed and inequity, and to build a just and fair global economy within a sustainable environment, for the sake of the world's poorest communities.

We are in need of a new Roman Missal. That's the book used by the priest during Mass. There are two sizes – the large one used for the prayers at the Altar, and a smaller one that the Altar Server holds for the priest at the Presider Chair. It is the smaller book that is needed. If anyone would like to purchase this in memory of a loved one, please contact the Parish Office for more information. Thank You.

Welcome Bishop Edward Malesic to the 5PM Mass on Saturday, February 9th. The Bishop and Father Dave will concelebrate the 5PM Mass, which will be followed by a delicious Pot Luck Dinner in Gillen Hall. See you on Saturday, February 9th at the 5PM Mass and at the Pot Luck Dinner afterwards.

There are some weeks remaining on the schedule for the votive candle memorials. Also, there are dates available for weekday Masses. Please call the office if you are interested. Thank you.

VOLUNTEER CLEARANCE UPDATE There have been many instances when our efforts to involve parishioners in activities here at the Parish have been hampered by their lack of volunteer clearances. We have a process that would make it very easy to obtain the Government mandated clearances for you. Simply call Joyce (ext. 206) and she will obtain them for you. We should have most of the information we need in our data base. Two things we will need are any previous address you have had since 1975 and a list of anyone who has resided with you since 1975 and their relationship to you. This would take care of the Criminal Background check, Child Abuse clearance, and FBI fingerprint waiver affidavit. The Diocesan mandated clearances are not as simple. The VIRTUS and Mandated Reporter certificates are obtained by taking online courses for each and the Diocesan Pastoral Code of Conduct (which we can supply to you) must be reviewed. If you would at least permit us to obtain the Government clearances for you, that would help us with your being involved here at the Parish. You could work on the Diocesan requirements on your own as soon as you can. The office can supply you with any information you may need.

So how are your New Year resolutions going? Some of you may have had a resolution to lose weight or save more money. Did you ever think about a resolution for your soul? Or the soul of someone else? Evangelization can be incorporated into your life every day. Here are some great examples that are easy to do and just may make your 2019 a life-changer:

Examine your conscience each evening before falling asleep.

* Give God the glory when you succeed at something. It really does belong to Him.

* Read about the saints. Share their stories with others.

* Volunteer at a soup kitchen, city jail, or prison.

* Take someone to see a movie or rent a video or participate in cultural or artistic activities that have healthy spiritual overtones.
